be at least 16 years of age, and be a Catholic in good standing with the Church (e.g. attending Mass, if married, in a valid Catholic marriage), who has already received the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, and Confirmation. (Canon 874)

- A baptized person who belongs to a non-catholic ecclesial community may be admitted only in company with a catholic sponsor and is not formally called a godparent but referred to as a Christian Witness.
- People who are not baptized Christians cannot be Sponsors/Christian Witnesses for baptism, since they themselves are not baptized. However, you may certainly invite non-Christian friends or relatives to attend the celebration and to have a special place in your child's life, sharing with your child their own faith traditions.
